

What will you pass down
to future generations?

A legacy gift is a simple and meaningful way to help guarantee a strong Jewish community for generations to come.

Jewish tradition teaches that one of our key responsibilities is to make the world a better place for future generations.

Chances are you already donate generously to the Jewish charitable organizations of your choice. But have you considered including those organizations in your will, so you can continue to make a difference for generations to come?

Dozens of Dallas area Jewish agencies, synagogues, and other organizations have partnered with the Dallas Jewish Community Foundation to encourage legacy gifts that will sustain our Jewish community for future generations.
